Jarrold Elkins Promoted to Assistant Supervisor
In Division of Probation & Parole's District 20

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Feb. 17, 2016) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Director of Probation & Parole Roberto Rodriguez today announced the promotion of Jarrod Elkins to assistant supervisor of District 20.

District 20 encompasses Pulaski, Rockcastle, Lincoln, Wayne, McCreary, Whitley, Clinton and Russell counties.

"Elkins brings a wealth of experience to his new role as assistant supervisor," said Rodriguez. "I am privileged to promote this outstanding officer to this position."

Elkins began his career with the Kentucky Department of Corrections in 2003 as a probation and parole officer in District 8. In 2004 he worked stints in the Lexington and Irvine offices. In 2005 he transferred to District 8 where he supervised a caseload and assisted with the transportation of inmates at Bluegrass Career Development Center who had court appearances.

In 2014 he transferred to District 11 and in that same year, transferred to District 10.

During his time with the department he has maintained various caseloads and has completed numerous pre-sentence investigation reports. He has been a class D officer for Three Forks Regional Jail, Madison County Jail, and most recently, the Laurel County Jail. He was a member of the 2015 American Correctional Association (ACA) security review team.

Elkins is a member of the Madison County Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) and a former president of the Kentucky State Parole Officers Association (KSPOA).

Elkins graduated from Eastern Kentucky University in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in police administration. He is a member of the 2015 Commissioners Executive Leadership Program and the recipient of the 2006 District 8 achievement award.
